Affirmative Action Definitions

American Indian or Alaska Native – A person with origins in any of the original peoples of North America who maintains cultural identification through documented tribal affiliation or community recognition.

Asian or Pacific Islander – A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. For example: China, Japan, Korea, Pakistan, the Philippine Republic, and Samoa.

Black/African American – A person with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic – A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish culture or origin regardless of race. For example, persons from Brazil, Guyana, or Surinam would be classified according to their race and would not necessarily be included in the Hispanic category. This category does not include persons from Portugal, who should be classified according to race.

White/Caucasian – A person with origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa or the Middle East.

Disabilities – For affirmative action purposes, people with disabilities are person with a permanent physical, mental or sensory impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities. Physical, mental or sensory impairment means: (a) any physiological or neurological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the body systems or functions; or (b) any mental or psychological disorder such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, or any specific learning disability. The impairment must be material rather than slight, and permanent in that it is seldom corrected by medical replacement, therapy or surgical means.

Disabled Veteran – A person entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for disability rated at 30 percent or more, or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.

Vietnam-Era Veteran – A person who served on active duty for a person of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975 and was discharged or released from duty with other than a dishonorable discharge.
